Excerpt from They the Crucified and Comrades: Two War Plays Close in front of the fire are drawn two rush chairs, on which two old men, in peasant costume, with sabots, are sitting. One of the old men has beside him a pile of naked boughs, about two feet in length, some gray and old, others newly stripped branches of green wood. He is working busily, tying the sticks together with rushes in the shape of a cross. The other man, who is feeble and bent with rheumatism, leans over and takes a dry stick from the worker's pile.
