Excerpt: .that its face Became a man s, though brutified by rage; Straightway my brain was crushed, and my eyes drowned With my own gore, till skies and clouds were gone, And dreadful midnight would have swallowed me, Had not another face, wounded as mine, Yet of unearthly charms, beamed through the gloom, Which broke around it. Fear not, I am here, He said; the sullen mist rebuked; fresh life In clasping gave me: then together borne We soared through multitudes of clustering stars (There glorious worlds, though here more small than leaves, ) Up to God s throne, while followed us along A flood of exultation from the harps Of Angels: these, each fairer than all stars, In divers ways yet lmoonfusedly Employed, their Lord and mine hailed with one voice, And as a new, dear brother welcomed me. Pale, and then flushed, and...
