Historically, LISC has invested over 9. 6 billion in communities across the country. In the Twin Cities, this has translated into over 370 million in investments, resulting in over 9, 000 affordable homes and 1. 3 million square feet of retail, community and educational space. I am here today to talk about the relationship between community development activities and the Livable Communities Act. We applaud the coordination promoted by the Livable Communities Act, which has the potential to combine community-based planning with regional planning efforts. In the Twin Cities, we have seen this integration take place with a great deal of success. I would like to provide a specific example. The central corridor is a new 11-mile light rail corridor and will be the second line in the Twin Cities regional transit system, that when complete, connects the downtown of Minneapolis to...
