

Desire I Remember, But Love No. (Paperback)

By Sergio Tellez-Pon

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . What happens when a young poet in Mexico City writes about his coming out experiences? In No recuerdo el amor sino el deseo / Desire I remember but love, no the author shares these first steps: new romances, one-night-stands, unreturned phone calls, erotic adventures and disillusionments. What we discover is that these experiences are not unique to one individual, but belong to all of us. This is a book that crosses many boundaries, both geographical and emotional. Poetry of language and imagination, especially its intimate and earthy episodes, and an open heart (but in slant verse), this book welcomes - as if several shades were refracted and condensed into a quick, minimalist mosaic - a multitude of tones, voices, and passionate interests that acknowledge each other. In this way it manages happily to offer both poetry for poetry's sake as well as poetry for the sake of the poet: thoroughly youthful, concrete, and in living color. - Jose Joaquin Blanco Sergio Tellez-Pon is one of Mexico's leading poets of queer identity, but his work until now has been almost unknown...
