Tenth Street Press, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 198 x 124 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . In today s world people are so busy chasing after unrealistic imaginary dreams, they sacrifice today for a better tomorrow, along the way sacrificing all that is important to them, their friends and family, their passions and interests and they don t even know why; instead succumbing to the abundance of illusionary social expectations programmed into us since birth. Scribbles on the wall is a reflection on life through experiences, observations, mistakes, regrets and successes, provoking debate, fostering ideas and raising opinion on everyday happenings; from alcohol and drugs to sex and religion, work, community and study to health, travel and friendship. Evan Sutter s latest work give a candid view of an obtainable life path in given with observed morals and teachings from tantric Zen to the anecdotes and parables from people of peace, and serves as a positive guide to reflect and better your subconscious.
