CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 212 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.2in. x 0.5in. A science fiction, time travel romance novel. When you save Times tush-- or its version of one--it ought to cut you a break, not kick your tush some where and some when. Though boo yah on providing a hot guy in leather to pull said tush out of the impact crater that Ashe so did not make despite the somewhat damning evidence to the contrary. So, the sitrep: Shes stuck on primitive planet Time Tracker suit down Lurch (her nanite) unable to connect to any tech (see primitive above) Surrounded by a bunch of buccaneer types who havent been around nubile young women cause its against their law The one guy (Vidor Shan) shed like to kiss on the mouth is off limits (time rule) Someone is gunning for Shan from somewhere in time And, oh yeah, some really strange meteorites are making landfall in some very strange ways. Seems Time has a new hobby: kicking Ashe (and shame on It for doing it when shes down). Not that she plans to stay down. Or give up the guy. Vidor Shan just wants to find his brother and get off this crazy planet. The one thing he does NOT need complicating things is a woman who is a) alien; b) a woman; and c) an alien woman. Its bad for her. Its bad for him. And then she explains to him what bad really is. . . I had completely planned to wrap up everything in my PROJECT ENTERPRISE series in STEAMROLLED. But when it turned into an uber-BAB (big a book), I realized that Ashe and Vids story would need to have their own book, so I meanly left them stranded...
