Reviews: .the Near Space series presents a realistic and action-packed modern vision of the industrialization of space and those who make it happen. If the collective governments of the world had any sense, they d be using these books as texts for ushering in a future worth having. -- Analog Science Fiction and Fact Sex and Violence in Zero-G collects some important work by an author who has become one of the finer hard science fiction writers around. definitely a worthwhile collection. -- Sci-Fi Weekly (A-) Steele s stories strive for a welcome verisimilitude, and how things might work in an environment that actively works against that sort of thing. And it works. Put ordinary people into a harsh, hostile environment, do bad things to them and then watch how they deal with it. It s a winning combination, especially as written by Allen Steele. -- Tangent Online For those of you unfortunate enough to have not yet discovered Allen Steele, this collection of short stories is the perfect place to start. -- Explorations.
