Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. With 5,000 years of recorded history to pull from spread across only one year, A Journey in Hope, Day by Day, is on the surface one of the most eclectic reviews of the mankind s civilization ever written. From the Ancient World s 1st conqueror, Alexander the Great to the man who turned down being king instead founding one of the great religious Buddha, to the explorers of the new world such as Magellan, how these individuals shaped the future by their achievements is examined. The Masters of Art such as Michelangelo and Picasso to the Icons of Literature Shakespeare to Austin to the Legends of Music from Bernstein to Janice Joplin fill the pages of this fast paced work often challenging the standard perceptions of history. The impact of sport is chronicled including the exploits of a teenage Gold Medal winner in the Olympic Decathlon to the only 40 plus year old Heavyweight Boxing Champion. Political achievements are discussed including passing the Bill of Rights to the repeal of the 18th Amendment to the United States constitution. Champions for religious freedom, to social justice to equal rights are presented in context. The missions of peace by Gandhi, to King to Mandela all are noted and how their devotion changed their world. The achievement of women are highlighted including the Queens who financed the exploration of the new world to the doctor who founded the field of genecology to the first U.S. Congresswoman who took office before woman s suffrage was the law of the land in America. While the text could have been accurately titled, The Best of Mankind, it can be read on a much deeper level as well...
