Excerpt: . . . ever been careful to refrain as far as that Bureau permitted it to do so, from anything which would cast reproach or suspicion upon it. The report to which reference has been made is a most complete and masterly document, giving not only a view of a vast field of work, but containing carefully arranged statistics, bearing on the health of camps, which cannot fail to be of great practical value. It has been most flatteringly noticed by all the foreign journals of medical, sanitary, and military science. Even the London Times, that persistent vilifier of everything American, fails to find anything to criticize in its pages, and devotes a column to its laborious details, which it considers without a parallel, save in the wonderful results of German statisticians, who have had years, instead of months, wherein to prepare them. And yet our Philadelphia critic can find nothing to admire in it. The tangible results, to his eye, are narrowed down to the vaccination of more than twenty thousand men. And in this, we are told it has but relieved the Medical Bureau, always ready and able to perform its whole duty in protecting the army from this dreadful scourge, of a portion of its labors. If the Medical Bureau is always thus ready and able, why did it allow an entire army of unvaccinated men to sail for Port Royal without a particle of vaccine matter, leaving the deficiency to be supplied by the..
