Working in a national park shouldnt be so complicated and stressful. Spectacular waterfalls, lush meadows, and pristine forest provide a setting like none other for two people unexpectedly attracted to each other. Kristjana Bay is a waitress for the main dining hall in Willow Camp. She has made her best effort to move forward from a toxic relationship with a co-worker. But the busy spring and summer season is just getting started at White Rock National Park. Strange attacks and employee behavior present major challenges. Adding to curiosity is the arrival of a new park ranger. A mysterious and abrasive man, hired to help with recent crime. During an era when budgets are tight, and a rogue head administrator makes critical errors, the patience and safety of everyone is tested. An inconvenient but passionate relationship has Kris wondering if things are as they seem, or if callous rumors about her new lover are true. Michaels distraction with Kris comes with a heavy price. And just when disappearances and attacks seem to fray the very last of everyones nerves, further disaster complicates the situation. By the the end of it all, Kris will have to decide if the cost of staying at the park is worth the price of her life. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
